WARNICK, Lela Mae

Born August 17, 1916 in Kearney, NE to DeWitt T. and Bernice A. Huffstutter passed peacefully from this life in Spokane on February 3, 2008. The majority of her childhood was spent in Kearney, where she graduated from high school and attended Kearney State Teachers' College. She graduated with a teaching degree in 1938. Shortly thereafter she moved to Spokane, where she met and married the love of her life, Clayborn Warnick. He preceded her in death in 1986, as did their son, Jerone J. Warnick, who was killed in action in Vietnam in 1969. Lela taught home economics at Libby and Salk Junior High Schools until early retirement in 1984 to care for her then ailing husband. She is survived by a sister, Anna Jane Mathews of Phoenix, AZ; sister-in-law, Virginia Huffstutter (David) of Sarasota, FL; nieces, Carolyn Eckstein of Nashville, TN and Louise Rehse of Phoenix, AZ; daughter-in-law, Pamela Warnick; grandson Todd Warnick and two great-grandchildren, Porshia Warnick and Chantzen Warnick, all of Spokane; numerous nephews, nieces, greatnephews, great-nieces, extended family and dear friends. She was a dedicated member of Audubon Park United Methodist Church for more than 60 years, where she had a large and cherished church family. She was strong in her faith and devoted to prayer, an inspiration to all who knew her. A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, March 1st at 10:00 a.m. at Audubon Park United Methodist Church, 3908 North Driscoll Blvd, Spokane, WA. Lela's body after cremation will be interred at Spokane Memorial Gardens with her husband and son. In lieu of flowers, memorials in her name may be directed to her church.
